

STATEMENT ON THE EARTHQUAKE IN MOROCCO

The EPP Women is deeply moved by the news of the devastating earthquake that struck Morocco today, tragically claiming the lives of individuals spanning all ages, from children to the elderly.

With unwavering support, the EPP Women stands shoulder to shoulder with the Moroccan government, its people, and our partner - RNI Women and President Amina Benkhadra, offering our assistance and support during these tumultuous times.

Our hearts pour out sincere condolences to the bereaved families and fervent hopes for a prompt and complete recovery of those wounded. In the spirit of solidarity and compassion, the EPP Women remains open to provide support to the Moroccan government, eager to contribute to relief efforts and assist the affected communities in every feasible manner.

EPP Women expresses full solidarity and support for Morocco, its people and all the families who suffer in these difficult times!
